

CLAIMS

What is claimed is:

1. A stereotactic upper body fixation and positioning device comprising:
a plate member having a pivoting member attached to one end of the plate member;
a bracket;
a vertically oriented bearing assembly providing pitch movement;
a horizontally oriented bearing assembly providing yaw movement; and at least two adjustable pivoting rod assemblies providing roll movement.